

Scenes From Operetta, "The Witch's Curse," Opens Tomorrow For 3-Day Run At Lincoln-Way High

There will be a repeat performance Saturday night with the same curtain time and a matinee Sunday at 3 o'clock. "Ruddigere," also known under the name, "The Witch's Curse," contains wit and comedy as well as delightful music. It is being staged by the mixed chorus of Lincoln-Way with Tom Olson, head of the vocal department, as director. In picture No. 1 is Lorna Miller, of Frankfort, as Dame Hannah, and Jim Stanek, Mokena, as Sir Robert Murgatroyd, the Lazarus of the Ruddigore line; No. 2, the accompanists, (l to r) Gayle Harling, Mokena, Gene Cline, Manhattan, and Sue Ann Shoop, Mokena; No. 3 Bob Breidert, (left) Frankfort, as a baronet in disguise, with his true love, Rose Maybud, played by Carol Spector, New Lenox, and at the right is Larry Lubway, New Lenox, as Richard Dauntless, another suitor of the fair Rose; No. 4, Sue Blomquist, New Lenox (left) and Karen Geuther, Frankfort, cast as the professional bridesmaids, Zora and Ruth, chatting with Richard Osmus, LooRs here like he will add assault and disorderly conduct to his crime agenda for the day if he belts Margaret with the whip, and disorderly conduct being only a misdemeanor may not count.

Mokena C. Of C. Plans To Monitor Village Meetings

Rains Cause Trench Tops To Cave

All fall the contractors and village officials at New Lenox have been hoping for rains of sufficient amount to settle the fill in the sewer trenches but there has been little precipitation. In fact there has been little rainfall for the past four months.

On Sunday and Monday of this week, however, the rains came down in sufficient amount to cause some of the sewer trench fill not only to settle but to collapse in spots.

Worst spots were on Second and Third avenues and S. Prairie. The streets in the vicinity of St. Jude school were so bad Monday morning that the school bus serving that institution could not negotiate them and classes were called off for the day.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Monday morning, it was reported, the contractors had the trenches filled and the streets in use again. The contractors are filling where holes have developed. Normyle & Berg, of Rock Island, the contractors on the New Lenox sewer job are almost finished with their end of the project, it was reported, and it was expected the sewer treatment plant would be completed by mid-December.

The youngsters who attend in the sixth and seventh grades of the Mokena public school reflect the opinion of their elders the Republicans will smother the Democrats there.

The youngsters gave Nixon, 110 votes; Kennedy, 28.

The voting was done as a part of the lessons in history. The week prior to the "election" the pupils registered as voters.

GARDEN CLUB GUESTS

The New Lenox Garden club will act as hostess at a special guest night program, tonight (Thursday) in the Lions Den.

Hunter Chapman, superintendent of Lincoln-Way high school and Paul Lambrecht, local school board member. Each panelist, choosing his own topic, will be given a fifteen minute period for discussion.

"As this meeting is to be informal, questions will be welcomed from the members attending," said Mr. Patterson "and if a good question and answer period develops we feel the audience will be enlightened and gain valuable information on how to cope with school problems." The meeting is opened to the public.

Hostesses for the evening will be the sixth grade room mothers with Mrs. Paul Lambrecht, chairman.

CARD AND BUNCO PARTY The Orland Park Firemen Auxiliary will sponsor a card and bunco party next Wednesday evening, Nov. 9 in the firehall at 8 p.m.

Edward B. Martie, 84, bank official, civic leader, former mayor and trustee of Mokena, died Thursday evening, Oct. 27 in his home on Front street. He had been in fairly good health until a month ago when he suffered a heart attack.

He was born in Orland Township, Oct. 12, 1876.

He was united in marriage to the former Emma Braun on March 27, 1901; following her death he married her sister, Clara Braun on February 26, 1910. He was engaged in farming until 1926 when he retired and moved to the village of Mokena. Mr. and Mrs. Martie celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Feb. 28 of this year.

At the time of his death Mr. Martie was vice-president of the Mokena State bank; the office he held for the past 28 years. His civic duties included village trustee for six years during 1925-31 and mayor for four years from 1931-35. He was a member of the Modern Woodman of America and St. John's United Church of Christ.

children. Funeral services were held Sunday, Oct. 30 from the St. John's United Church of Christ, Mokena, with the Rev. Theodore C. Wimmeler, officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

LEADERS TO MEET

The Tri-Kena neighborhood Girls Scout meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 9 in the New Lenox Methodist church at 1 p. m. Mrs. Almeda Knobloch, new chairman of the group, will preside at the leaders meeting.

Predicts Record Vote Will Be Cast In Area Tuesday

Next Tuesday is election day and heavy balloting is expected throughout the nation. A larger than usual vote is anticipated in Illinois and in Will county it is predicted that some 65,000 ballots will be cast, setting a record.

There are five precincts in Frankfort township now. The number for New Lenox, four, is unchanged and record votes are expected in both townships, according to election workers.

The Democrats, taking advantage of the stir caused by Kennedy's appearance in Joliet last week, have doubled their efforts to garner votes in what is normally a Republican county. They are even working hard to enlist support for their county ticket, which this year is weaker than ever according to political observers.

The Demo chiefs, however, reason that if they can get out enough votes for Kennedy and Otto Kerner their candidate for governor against Gov. William G. Stratton, it is conceivable they could carry the county for their entire ticket, say some of the politicians. Others, however, are equally certain Will county will stay in the Republican column, from top to bottom.

Observers concede Mayor Daly will give Kerner a big lead in Chicago but claim that this very support has made Stratton stronger downstate than he was four years ago. Downstaters are always suspicious of Chicago politicians and ever on their guard against what they believe to be designs on their pocketbooks and rights, observers point out, adding that even downstate Democrats are inclined to keep their fingers crossed when doing business with their Chicago colleagues.

Noah Mason, veteran congressman from this, the 15th district, is opposed again this year by Dorothy O'Brien, Democrat. There is no contest for the state legislature in Will county, Warren L. Wood and Meade Balts, Republicans, and Francis J. Loughran being unopposed.

In the county five officials are to be elected. State's Attorney Frank H. Masters, Jr., Joliet, (R), is opposed by John D. Lynch (D), Lockport attorney.

J. Elmer Swansbro, Joliet (R), clerk of the circuit court, is opposed for re-election by John J. Houlihan, (D) Park Forest, assistant to the manager of Suburban Material Corp.

Robert L. Spreitzer, Joliet (R), recorder of deeds, is opposed for re-election by William F. Wessel (D) Joliet, retired shoe salesman.

Martin Lundquist, Joliet (R) is opposed for re-election as county auditor by Felix Longhini (D) Lockport, an employee at the Texas refinery.

Willard G. Blood, Joliet, (R) is opposed for re-election by Floyd Nielsen, (D) who owns a drug store at Braidwood.

If the youngsters who attend in the sixth and seventh grades of the Mokena public school reflect the opinion of their elders the Republicans will smother the Democrats there.

The youngsters gave Nixon, 110 votes; Kennedy, 28.

The voting was done as a part of the lessons in history. The week prior to the "election" the pupils registered as voters.

Immanuel Lutheran Church Will Observe 110th Birthday

Immanuel Lutheran congregation of Mokena, one of the oldest in Will county, is to observe the 110th anniversary of its founding this Sunday, Nov. 6.

The event is to be marked with a special service and communion at 10 a.m.

Also scheduled as a part of the observance will be the dedication of the new parsonage on LaPorte road as a further step in its "Building for the Future" program.

The church, a member of the Missouri Synod, was organized Nov. 4, 1850, by German immigrants. There were 15 families in the original group and they bought the land for the church from the government. Today there are many different nationalities represented in the congregation. The original church was on a wooded hillside, two miles east of Mokena. In 1915 the congregation built a new church at Union and Cross streets in Mokena and still worships there.

First pastor was the Rev. Anton A. Weyel. The present pastor is the Rev. A. J. Bueltman. The Rev. Elias Hieber served the longest pastorate in the history of the congregation -- 41 years, 1874 to 1915.

The records show Caspar Winnemacher, Fred Werner and George Geuther were the first trustees. Mr. Geuther's great-grandson, Robert Geuther, is the present president of the congregation. A number of other descendants of the founders are also active in the affairs of the church.

With an eye to the future the congregation purchased 21 acres on LaPorte road. That was five years ago. A parsonage was erected there last year. Altho the pastor has occupied the new quarters since last April, its formal dedication will not take place until Sunday. At the close of the anniversary service in the church the congregation will proceed to the LaPorte road property to dedicate the parsonage.

A history of the congregation has been written by the Rev. Mr. Bueltman and distributed to the members, the present pastor members. The present pastor came to Mokena in January, 1959, from New Berlin, Ill., where he was pastor of St. John's Lutheran church.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Oct. 30 in the St. Peter's United Church of Christ, Frankfort, for Mrs. Ida Harmening, 83, lifelong resident who died Friday, Oct. 28 at her home. Burial was in Pleasant Hill cemetery. The Rev. Erich Bizer, pastor of the church officiated at the service.

Mrs. Harmening, nee Werner, was born in Frankfort April 4, 1877. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. August Werner who owned and operated an implement store at one time in the village. She was preceded in death by her husband Karl, in 1945 and a daughter Eunice in 1921. She is survived by a daughter Isabella, a Frankfort school teacher with whom she resided.

She was a member of St. Peter's United Church of Christ.

Funeral arrangements were by the Spindler-Koelling Funeral Home, Matteson.

Music Teachers Of CSHS Speak At Board Meeting

Mrs. Mary Pettjohn and Milton Potter, music department educators at Carl Sandburg high school gave very enlightening talks on their respective music programs at the executive board meeting held Oct. 24.

Mrs. Pettjohn stated that the "Tone Poets" music group gave approximately fifty performances last year and suggested that fourteen white sweaters with a blue chenille lyre on the front of each, be purchased for use by this group. Mr. Potter suggested the purchase of another piano, which would in many ways elevate the teaching quality and quantity of music in the music department.

Mr. Potter announced that the Luther College Concert Band of Decorah, Iowa, would be going on tour in the spring and is scheduling their only Chicago area performance at the Carl Sandburg High School, Monday May 29, 1961. Frank Liston, Richard Scherubel, and Lester Mahaffay, graduates of Carl Sandburg High School, are presently members of the Luther College Concert Band.

Vencel Mortenson, program chairman, introduced George Tomasek of Palos Park, who is employed by Rayner Delheim and Company, music printers of Chicago. He presented and demonstrated "How Music and Music Books are printed." The music is first hand engraved, backwards, on a steel plate by special tools, which were displayed. Then the plate is inked and an impression made on special rice paper. The impression is photographed and the negative is used in reproducing the music onto a large cylinder. Ask Aid For Mentally Retarded Young In U.S.

Gov. Stratton has proclaimed the 12-day period of Nov. 13-24 as Retarded Children's Week in Illinois and has urged support of the Illinois Council for Mentally Retarded Children, the week's local sponsor.

Illinois will join the nation in observing the national week under the leadership of the National Association for Retarded Children which has more than 700 member units in the United States and its territories working for the interests of 5,000-000 mentally retarded Americans.

Gov. Stratton's proclamation states that there are 150,000 retarded children and adults in Illinois and adds that approximately 120,000 babies born annually in the United States become mentally retarded.

The proclamation notes that the economic strength of the community and nation is being handicapped by mental retardation and urges Illinois residents to support the Illinois Council's appeal for funds, to be made during the week, as a means of helping each retarded individual to develop to the height of his potential.

"The success of this appeal will benefit our state by making possible expanded research and training programs with the goal of more effective rehabilitation of those afflicted in Illinois," the proclamation declares.

The council, with headquarters at 343 S. Dearborn st., Chicago, coordinates the activities of 43 NARC units in the state. The units are composed of parents and friends of the retarded who sponsor special schools, vocational training workshops and recreational and welfare services. Among the groups are two which devote their services to the welfare of the 10,000 mentally retarded residents of Lincoln and Dixon (Ill.) State Schools.

Activities during National Retarded Children's Week will be designed to demonstrate the week's theme, "Retarded Children Can Be Helped." Such activities will include open house events in special schools and workshops and exhibits of art and handicraft.

Don McNeill, toastmaster of the Breakfast Club radio show, and Mrs. Kay McNeill are heading a state-wide committee of volunteers planning the week's activities.

TRAINING DOGS as prison warders is one of the many jobs accomplished at the Franbee Kennels, Orland Park, in preparing dogs to serve as guards and perform police duties. The two German shepherds here are being readied for work in the penitentiary system at North Carolina. That state has purchased some 100 dogs from Frank Yarnik, of Franbee Kennels. The two officers, Lt. D. E. Smith (l), and Sgt. Harold Taylor, have been taking training here on training and when they return to Carolina will train the 100 dogs.

New Lenox Man Dies Of Rifle Bullet

Charles Casebeer, 54, who operated a photography business at New Lenox, is dead of a gunshot wound, apparently self-inflicted. He was found in his home, 169 Forest avenue, about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon (Oct. 26) by New Lenox Police Chief George Kennedy and Officer Alvin Miller.

According to information given Coroner Willard G. Blood, Mr. Casebeer was talking on the phone to his wife, Edith, in Wisconsin Wednesday when she heard a sort of crashing sound and after that there was silence. Later she telephoned a son by a former marriage, Richard Selchert, now of Joliet but formerly employed in New Lenox as a druggist. Selchert told New Lenox police, who investigated.

They found the phone receiver lying on the floor beside the body and a .22 rifle beneath it.

Mr. Casebeer had been a steamfitter and welder but recently had been devoting most of his time to photography and had a studio off U. S. 30.

Removal was to the Baskerville chapel, east of New Lenox on U. S. 30 where private services were conducted Saturday.

Burial was in Elmhurst cemetery, with the Rev. Alfred H. Hunter officiating.

At an inquest conducted Monday at the Baskerville chapel by Coroner Blood the jury returned a verdict of death.

Congratulations

It so happens that this week-end and last witnessed special services and programs in various churches of the area to mark memorable events in their histories.

We wish to congratulate them all. This Sunday the Immanuel Lutheran church of Mokena is celebrating its 110th anniversary and on the same day is dedicating a new parsonage, thus commemorating the past and looking forward to the future.

This Sunday also is set aside by the congregation of St. John's United Church of Christ, of Mokena, for the formal dedication of the new addition to the edifice which will serve as an educational building.

Last Sunday the Immaculate Heart Sisters who operate St. Jude's parochial school at New Lenox held open house in their new convent. The event marks the 10th anniversary in the history of the school. The parish of St. Jude was formed in 1935 but it did not have its school until 1950.

Next Sunday, Nov. 13, the congregation of the Green Garden Methodist church will celebrate its 75th anniversary with a special service.

These events not only are important milestones in the life of the various congregations directly effected but also in the life of area.

In the settlement and development of these United States the establishment of churches and schools served as foundations on which our way of life was built.

Thru the years both have grown and their importance magnified.

The building of churches has always meant hard work, unselfish devotion and sacrifice. Such things make people strong. And strong people make for a strong community and a strong nation.

We are fortunate that we have them.

We haven't got around to talking with any of the teachers who attended the Will county institute last week so have no first hand impressions of Bennett Cerf, book publisher whose regular appearance and billing on a TV panel show have not only brought him to life but also a lot of dollars that otherwise would have escaped him.

Until Cerf got hooked up with that panel show he was just another book publisher. Ask anyone. What are publishers? Vegetable? Animal? Mineral? And the answer? A shrug, perhaps a spreading of the hands.

Simon & Schuster... Little, Brown and Company... Charles Scribner... Dodd, Mead and Merrill... Houghton, Mifflin... Harper and Brothers... Holt, Winston & Rinehart... All of them are publishers of high standing but to the public they aren't alive. They are just names.

No one ever thinks that maybe they have colds, headaches, children, words with their wives, financial problems, belong to civic or service groups and so include their problems with their personal ones -- Houghton needs a haircut? -- Schuster forgot to pick up that parcel his wife wanted? Mifflin's lawnmower is broken? Rinehart didn't remember to remember that anniversary?

These probably are, or were (if they have passed on) good guys... everyone a human being but who would believe it. Publishers are just names, and that's all.

This Cerf who has bridged the gap. He is a publisher but it is also conceded that he is a human being and if he hasn't already done so he should thank TV.

Over the years the people have become used to seeing Bennett Cerf on a panel show that runs every Sunday night. Unfortunately, or fortunately -- it depends upon the viewer -- this show is late enough that it is seldom crowded off by special event productions so thousands of people see Mr. Cerf every Sunday and have come to accept him as a live person.

They have also learned from the spoken word that he is a publisher. He also is billed as 1.) A wit; 2.) A columnist; 3.) A humorist; 4.) A speaker; 5.) A publisher.

Now all of this builds up into a very nice advertisement, especially in a medium where a sneeze -- loosed commercially -- costs a thousand dollars. The result of this billing not only is said to be beneficial to his publishing business but also enables him to scoop up quite a bundle of dollars as a "principal speaker."

The principal speaker, it might be pointed out, is the one that gets the money -- if a speaker's fee is available. Mr. Cerf is said to be available for practically any kind of meetings -- breakfast, forenoon, luncheon, afternoon, dinner and evening.

—o—
It would seem that Mr. Cerf is traveling when not paneling, so much so that when I saw his picture as he appeared at a breakfast in Joliet last week I was curious.

The Mr. Cerf in the local picture did not look too much like the Mr. Cerf on TV and it made me wonder if the Mr. Cerf in Joliet was a No. 2 company of himself, appearing in the provinces while the original New York cast of Mr. Cerf was still on Broadway.

—o—
Next week comes the election and from the trivia with which all newspapers are deluged at such times is an item which explains why men fight so hard to become President. Once he becomes a tenant of the White House a man is safe from his wife's whims in arranging furniture. It takes an Act of Congress to make any changes in the state rooms of the White House.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I agree, if one of the candidates would only come out with an addition to his platform to include a proposed law demanding the return of the Cigar Store Indian and the cigar case brick he would guarantee himself the vote of every cigar smoker in the country.

It is hard for me to understand why, election after election candidates avoid this important issue.

C. OF C. GETS COMPLAINTS

Dear Editor:
The Mokena Chamber of Commerce, like most business groups, receive many complaints pertaining to the village that rightfully should be directed to the village board. Some of them have already appeared on the board's table before we receive them. The answer from the board in these cases was unsatisfactory.

One of these complaints pertains to the condition of Front Street. During our meeting the last week in September, our president called the mayor asking him when work would proceed on the project, he promised the president it would be worked upon the following day. Three days later a crew resembling the old PWA spent that day and the following few days on the street. They finally got the base surface down and then came the bad weather.

It was reported that the street would have to remain now as it is until spring. So, at our meeting Tuesday Oct. 25, we again appointed a member to call the Mayor. The Mayor said that a State engineer was to meet with an engineer from the paving company and the village engineer Tuesday Nov. 3, and if the state man ruled that the job would have to be held-up until spring that is the way it would have to be, but that work on the sidewalks would proceed as scheduled.

Even though, it is state gasoline tax, tax money that is being used, the answer is not a very satisfying one to merchants in that block. It will not be a very happy situation for patrons of the new postoffice, which includes everyone in the village.

This letter is not written to throw rocks at the village board, perhaps their hands are tied, but to inform the citizens that the Chamber has taken action on their complaints.

Another complaint that pertains more closely to the merchant is about some of the arrests by our police department, poor treatment of truck drivers who make deliveries here and the bad name such acts are giving Mokena to the people and our new neighbors, at Arbury Hills.

Recently a woman from Arbury Hills was fined $10 for improper parking, her side of the story is that she was new in the area and didn't know the rules. The village board had not refused their share of sales tax returns and should be concerned in helping us increase these returns.

As a sort of "Safety Valve" the Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to attend all village board meetings in the future. We welcome any help or suggestions from your readers.

Sincerely,
A member of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce

Hints For Homeowners

By: JAMES FIZZELL, COOK COUNTY ASS'T. FARM ADVISER

The ability of a rose plant to withstand winter weather depends on the condition of the plant, and the manner in which low temperature occurs.

Plants that have had proper care throughout the growing season are more likely to withstand severe winters than unhealthy plants since healthy plants are able to manufacture the maximum amount of sugars and to mature properly.

Fluctuating winter temperatures are much harder on roses than consistently low temperatures.

In our climate, these fluctuating temperatures predominate, making it essential to afford the plants some protection which will serve, not to keep them warm, but to avoid sudden changes in temperature.

With small hybrid teas and floribundas, the best method is to mound up soil around the base of the plant. The pile of soil should be 8 to 10 inches high. This should be done after the first killing frost, while the ground can still be worked. Be sure when gathering the soil around the plant not to expose any roots. It is probably better to bring in soil from another part of the yard for this than to risk damage to roots while scraping around among the roses.

Tree roses are quite susceptible to winter injury. In protected locations, the top can be wrapped with straw and covered with burlap.

In exposed locations, the plant should be pulled over to one side and covered with soil or straw.

This is done by digging under the roots on one side until the plant can be pulled over without completely breaking all connections with the soil, and tying the end securely so that it is not tossed about by winter winds.

Proper attention to preparing your roses for winter will insure that they will come through even the most severe winter in the best possible condition.

Fall Flight Of Waterfowl Is Thrilling

BY ROBERTS MANN
Conservation Editor
(Cook Co. Forest Preserve)

Every autumn, McGinnis Slough -- near Orland Park -- a 315-acre sanctuary in our Palos preserves -- is visited by many thousands of waterfowl and provides some fascinating spectacles. Frequently, near sundown, flock after flock of ducks, coming from the north, set their wings and glide down upon the water. Meanwhile, other flocks are rising, circling, and then disappearing southwesterly toward the Illinois river valley. Flocks of Canada geese, and sometimes a few whistling swans, also stop to rest and feed on this refuge.

The annual migrations of vast numbers of waterfowl have always awed and mystified mankind. When the sky is full of ducks as far as we can see, or when we hear a distant hinking and discover a great V of geese overhead, we wonder where they came from, where they go, and how they find their way so surely back and forth, each spring and fall.

Some ornithologists like to believe that birds have a sixth sense -- a "sense of direction" -- which is absent or poorly developed in humans. Others surmise that they have "magnetic awareness" -- a sort of compass -- like sense; or that they navigate by the sun. Still others insist that birds are guided by "inherited memory", or "hereditary knowledge", or merely by a convenient "instinct". None of these theories explains, satisfactorily, their behavior under all conditions. The manner in which birds find their way over thousands of miles of migration routes to their wintering grounds and back to the very spot where they nested or were hatched the previous year, continues to be a mystery.

Since 1885 the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service has been accumulating information on the migrations of waterfowl. Much of it is based on the records of a great number of banding stations and other cooperators such as the Illinois Natural History Survey, and the Delta Waterfowl Research Station in Manitoba, Canada. Since 1910, several million ducks and geese have been banded and several hundred thousand "returns" have been received -- records of where and when banded birds were killed by hunters, captured by other banding stations, or recaptured by the original station in subsequent years.

This information established the fact that waterfowl, with few exceptions, move south and north between their traditional breeding places and wintering grounds thru regular migration routes. Further, that there are four flyways in North America: the Atlantic, Mississippi, Central and Pacific.

The Mississippi flyway is used by a great variety of ducks and geese with breeding territories that extend from the Dakotas and Wisconsin to the Arctic and from Hudson Bay to Alaska. Their principal wintering grounds are along the lower Mississippi and the Gulf coasts, also some birds -- notably blue-winged teal -- go to the West Indies or northern South America.

Cook County is located near the eastern edge of that flyway. During six years of trapping and banding ducks at McGinnis Slough, we demonstrated that black ducks from Ontario, as well as mallards and several other species from the north and northwest, stop here on their way to the Mississippi valley. Also that blue-winged teal, from Saskatchewan and Manitoba, habitually stop here on their southeasterly migrations. Of 26,415 birds banded, and 3,393 reported as killed or captured, 659 had returned to McGinnis and been recaptured. Perhaps that is because we lie at the head of the Des Plaines and Illinois river valleys angling toward the Father of Waters. Perhaps this is a traditional stop-over learned long ago when so much of the Chicago region was swampland. Nobody knows.

and face the problem of convincing their own people they must now bear their share of cold war costs since their own present economic good fortune, is due largely to U. S. aid which is not now necessary. Few politicians anywhere care to face such a situation as it could lead to political suicide regardless of merits.

Indications seem to be that a good start is being made in educating their voters.

The financial news has been much better reading of late. The gloom that seemed to reave, has been fading. Comments from leading bankers and other financial sources, have expressed belief that we may have already passed thru the worst of any slowing of business. There is even expectation from some sources that we will resume the upward development by not later than mid-1961.

After the election and the responsibility of high office, there is often a tendency toward the conservative rather than the daring. Claims and counter claims as well as promises, have a way of cooling after the votes have been counted.

No matter who is elected, we can expect an upward push in social legislation and greater government spending in this direction. The movement is this direction is world wide and inevitable at this point.

Fine Orland, Frankfort Pair After Auto Chase

An Orland Park resident, James A. Englebrecht, 20, and a Frankfort man, Erwin Harmon, 23, were arrested on the outskirts of Joliet Friday night by park and merchant police following a chase in which the officers fired five shots. Police finally nabbed the pair after Englebrecht crashed the car he was driving into the guard rail of a bridge over the New York Central tracks on Hillcrest road.

Taken before Justice of the Peace George Williams in Joliet Saturday Englebrecht was fined $100 and costs on a charge of reckless driving. He paid and was released from jail where he and Harmon had been lodged. Harmon was fined $50 and costs on a charge of disorderly conduct. Being without funds he was returned to jail Saturday morning but was released later when his fine was paid.

According to the police report Englebrecht was driving a car owned by Ann Englebrecht of Frankfort. Joliet Park District Police Officers John Shelley and Joseph Pillion were almost to the beginning of the one-way drive in Pilcher park when the car later identified as the one driven by Englebrecht came speeding west. The police turned an followed.

Englebrecht drove a few blocks west on Cass street, stopped in a parking lot and turned off his lights. In the meantime George Carnes, a merchant police officer, had seen Englebrecht go into the lot and extinguish his lights. When Carnes came up Englebrecht took off, speeding east on Cass to Hillcrest road where he turned and started for Washington street. Carnes fired five shots in the air but Englebrecht paid no heed and went on until he reached the bridge over the NYC tracks. This is a sharp turn and he was going too fast to make it and instead crashed into a bridge rail.

He was fortunate, police pointed out, that he did not go thru the rail and usually happens when cars hit there at high speed. The tracks are some 20 feet below.

In examining Englebrecht's driver's license the officers found it had been tampered with, the report states, and an attempt made to erase the birth date.

Letters To The Editor

OPPOSE BOND ISSUES

Dear Sir:

This is my answer to the building bond issues, on which we will vote Nov. 8. If you want higher property taxes, plus a possible state property tax, (which we don't have now, but the Governor, Auditor, and Treasurer can impose if necessary), vote yes, Sec. 6, and Sec. 10 of the Act of the General Assembly states: "Shall— a direct tax be levied on real and personal property". Some proponents of the bond issues say legislators wouldn't dare impose such a tax. Why not? You've approved it if you vote yes.

If your taxes are unbearably high now, and you would like to work for tax reform, vote NO. Personal property taxes rose 97.4% since 1950, and real and personal property, constituting 1/3 of the wealth of Illinois, paid 60% of the state tax load. Deficit spending is political cowardice, a sure road to state and national weakness.

The choice is yours.

This is the most critical election year in our history. Think of the real values of life before you go to the polls; do you want freedom with justice or peasantry and slavery in the not too distant future.

This choice is yours to make also.

Sincerely,
Lucille M. Stauffenberg
R. N.

UNIVERSITY BOND ISSUE

The editor of this newspaper brought to your attention in his editorial of Oct. 20 the upcoming election and the pressing need to pass the University bond issue.

This bond issue is of great concern to us, as college students, for we realize how important it is that the leaders of tomorrow, the children YOU know, are given the chance to be adequately instructed. We were fortunate enough to enter college at a time when facilities were yet sufficient, but perhaps slightly outdated and crowded. Now, however, more and more high school graduates want and need to enter college. If the facilities aren't increased with the ever-increasing enrollment, these students will have to be told "No." This is an event which neither you nor we want to see happen.

As students of Illinois State Normal University, we can see the extent to which our facilities must be increased, and we know that the other state universities are experiencing the same lack of schoolrooms and space. We can begin to feel the pressure of crowded conditions. We challenge you to realize what this means for the future. We challenge you to realize your duty to support the leaders of tomorrow by going to the polls on November 8 and marking X for the University Bond Issue. KEEP THE COLLEGE DOORS OPEN.

Sincerely,
Vivienne Eisenbrandt - Marilyn Sayers

Starting with the Presidency, no other man in our history has been so well prepared as Richard Nixon. He's carried more and heavier executive responsibilities, taken part in more executive decisions, and "sat in" for the President on more critical occasions than any other Vice President in our history. No other Presidential candidate has ever offered so much experience in international and domestic affairs. President Eisenhower has shared with Richard Nixon every major internal problem to face the nation in the last eight years. Nixon does not have to grow up on the job. He has lived with it. He is our chief hope for the critical years ahead.

For Vice President. Ambassador Lodge has had more contact with Soviet Russia than any other living American! For seven-and-a-half years he has served as permanent representative of the United States to the United Nations. Lodge has faced the communists leaders—and defeated them—more times than any other American. If communist imperialism is a world problem, he has lived with it, knows how to meet it. Lodge has 17 years of legislative experience—13 in the United States Senate. As Vice President he would assume a major share of America's foreign affairs. This would put together, as a team for world relations, the two most experienced statesmen in the United States.

When the right decision is needed, there can be no denying that experience counts. On all levels of government—national, state, local—experienced Republican Candidates will serve you with vigor, judgment and intelligence. That's why from the office of Presidency on down the line, you can count on these men for responsible leadership.

Tie With Bremen Drops Knights Into 2nd Place

BY BILL SLUIS
It was surprising, indeed, but the Bremen Braves dealt the Lincoln-Way Knights a 7-7 tie Saturday. The Knights, powerful inhabitants of first place in the SouthWest Suburban loop had been rated a heavy favorite, but were hampered by injuries to key players. Bob Lichtenwalter and Ron Miller, Lichtenwalter is the regular right end and Miller the fullback, and their absence was the coup de grace to the Knights, who have been beset by injuries all season.

The game opened with Ron Yunker returning a Bremen kickoff to the Knight 38. A good series of plays followed but Lincoln-Way lost the ball on a fumble at the Bremen 46. Later in the quarter the Knights were stopped at each the Bremen 18 and 7. Both times it was the downs marker which thwarted the marches. In the second quarter the Knights broke the ice. They went 79 yards in 16 plays to the Bremen goal. Dan Fenn's 19-yard end run set up a first down on the Braves' eight, and two plays later Skip Kruzich ran a seven yard option for a touchdown. Fenn ran over the conversion, making it 7-0 at the half.

But in the third quarter Bremen evened matters. Immediately after taking the kick-off the Braves marched 62 yards. Rich Norbut scored from one yard out to make it 7-6. Then Norbut also ran the conversion, making it 7-11.

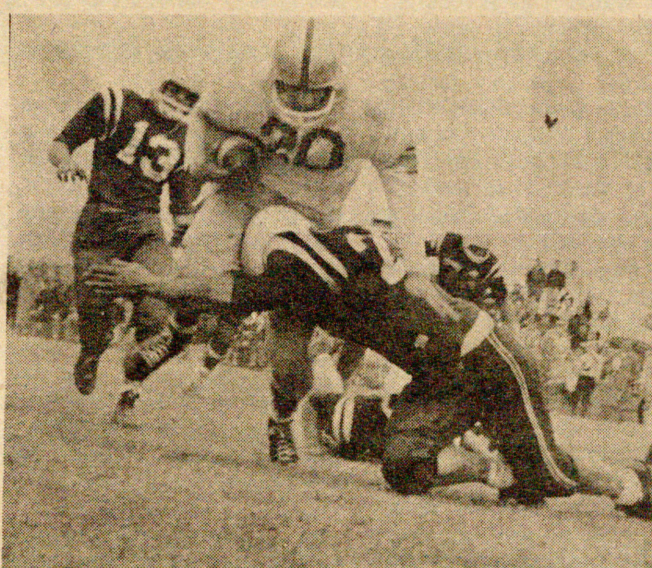

After this, the game was quite even. Neither team was able to score, altho Bremen came within 11 yards at one time. The final play of the game saw a pass from Skip Kruzich sail into the arms of a Bremen defender, and with it flew away all hope.

The Knights are now 3-1-2 in the SWS, with Bremen in last place with a 0-5-1 record. Sandburg is first with the Knights and Richt tied for second spot.

This week the Knights close out their 1960 football schedule against Rich. The contest will take place at the Lincoln-Way athletic field at 2:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon. The victor will be assured of at least second place in the conference, and if Sandburg should lose either L-W or Rich will take the crown. If the Knights are at full strength for this battle they will probably win, but if Lichtenwalter, Miller, or Lauffer is still gone it could be a very tight squeeze.

Score by quarters:
Knights 0 7 0 0-7
Bremen 0 0 7 0-7

OFFENSE ON DEFENSE--The tackler here for Lincoln-Way is No. 21, Dan Fenn, who has been one of the top ground gainers in area football this season. The ball carrier is Jim Casey. Coming up from behind to see that Casey doesn't try to wriggle forward after he is dropped is No. 13, another New Lenox lad, Walter Mlakar. This picture was taken in the Bremen-Lincoln-Way game played last Saturday at Midlothian.

New Conference Of Area High Schools Is Formed

A new conference of area high schools called the Southeast Suburban Conference was formed Oct. 25, 1960 at a meeting held at Bradley. The following are the official representatives for each of the six schools: Superintendent S. A. Smith, Bradley - Bourbonnais High school; Superintendent T. R. Birkhead, Bremen High school (Tinley Park); Principal Elmer O. Ziegler, Crete-Monee High school; Principal Robert L. Miller, Rich High school (Olympia Fields); Principal Atkin F. Young, Thornton Fractional North High school; Principal John M. Flynn, Thornton Fractional South High school.

The Constitution, which was adopted today, will encourage participation by member schools in a wide range of activities including music, girls athletic associations, speech, drama, debate, student councils, and athletics.

The Conference has the approval of the Association of Suburban High schools and Albert Willis, executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association.

All activities will be conducted under the rules of the Illinois High School Association and the Southeast Suburban Conference.

A schedule of frosh-soph football games will initiate the Conference activities in the fall of '61 with full-scale competition at the varsity level in athletics starting in the fall of '62.

Two of the schools making up the league, Rich (Olympia Fields) and Bremen (Tinley Park) are under construction and will open to 9th and 10th graders in the fall of 1961. Crete-Monee has been a member of the Kankakee Valley Conference and Bradley has

Eagles Beat Reavis 7 To 6 In Battle For 1st Title

Carl Sandburg gridders surged ahead in the fourth quarter in its game with Reavis last Friday night and then held back their hammering hosts until the clock ran out to give them a 7 to 6 victory and undisputed lead in the Southwest Suburban conference football standings.

Altho favored to win the Sandburg Eagles found themselves with a lot of trouble on their hands. The Rams were tough and the first quarter ended scoreless. In the second period Reavis put a series of plays together and finally flipped a pass that resulted in a touchdown.

Fortunately for the Eagles the attempt to convert the extra point failed. However, after the third frame had ended without the Eagles coming to roost the six points chalked up for the Rams began to look bigger and bigger.

It wasn't that the Eagles weren't playing well. Far from it. Roger Brown, the quarterback, was doing a fine job as were the backs, Jim Jeffries, Bud Swayne and Randy Cernik. It was that Reavis, which has been improving each week-end was playing a bang up game.

Then in the last period the Eagles began running and passing in a manner that was not to be denied. The march toward goal was clinched with a 20-yard pass from Brown to Bill Gorney, and end Gorney carried it over. Cernik made the extra point and there it was, Sandburg 7, Reavis 6, and not too much time to go.

Reavis tried desperately to get back in the game and Sandburg played just as desperately to hold that one point lead which may very well mean the league championship.

Then with a minute and 40 seconds left in the game and the Rams deep in Sandburg territory, Reavis fumbled and one of Coach Joe Devine's crew recovered for Sandburg.

Roger Brown then went to work and with an admirable mixture of time consuming plays held the ball until the final gun.

The Eagles will journey to Homewood this week-end to meet the Homewood-Flossmoor Vikings. The Vikings have been an in and out team and observers pick Sandburg to win but there is one thing about it -- the Eagles will not go into the game thinking they have already won the title.

A win over the Vikings will mean that Sandburg will have won the SWS football crown for the first time.

L-W's Grid Pilot Escapes Hurt In Crash

"Skip" Kruzich, Lincoln-Way varsity quarterback, escaped injury when a station wagon he was driving on Francis road went into a ditch about a mile and a half west of Mokena last Thursday night. There was some damage to the car, however, which belonged to the high school.

Skip's father, Joseph Kruzich, teacher and basketball coach at Lincoln-Way, had arranged to use the car to convey himself and Allen Waldvogel, president of the state Students Industrial Arts club, to a meeting at Springfield. They wanted to make an early start on Friday so Kruzich was given permission to take the station wagon home.

Since Kruzich had his own car been a member of the Will-Rooke Conference. Thornton Fractional North and Thornton Fractional South have been without conference association since the schools started separate athletic programs in the fall of 1959. Prior to that time, Thornton Fractional was a member of the South Suburban Conference. Correspondence, publicity, and all other conference business will be carried on by the office of the president-secretary, presently, Principal John M. Flynn, Thornton Fractional Township South High School, 185000 Burnham Avenue, Lansing, GRanite 4-6060.

OOPS THERE!--going good this Bremen chap was and had pounded thru the Lincoln-Way line for 10 yards when zingo! he slipped or tripped and down he went. He might have picked up another yard or two if he hadn't slipped but not much more than that. You can see Jim Miller, of Mokena (No. 14) was just about to make contact when the ball carrier fell and No. 52, Joe Reinhard, of New Lenox was driving in from another angle. Those other Lincoln-Way defenders weren't too far off considering everything the 10 yards the Bremen man made were about all he was entitled to.

Upper Room

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. (11 Corinthians 5:17.) Fred was a student in high school. One day, unnoticed, he cheated in his chemistry test. A few days later he attended a religious meeting where he made a decision for Christ.

As he thought of his old life, he decided to correct what could be corrected in it. He soon remembered his cheating. He went to meet his teacher and said, "I deserve a zero in my chemistry test because I cheated." The teacher was astonished, but Fred explained that he had given his life to Christ. "I will give you a zero," the teacher answered, "but it will be a noble zero."

Fred's decision was a blessing to his teacher as well as to his fellow students, for many of them came to know Christ as their personal Saviour.

PRAYER: Help me, O God, to show my faith in what I do wherever this may be. I gladly surrender all that I have into Thy hands that my faith may manifest itself for Thy glory. In the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven . . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Today I will do only what manifests my faith.

State Wars On Accidental Poisoning Of Children

(CNS) Accidental poisoning cases among children increased more than 24% in Illinois, Dr. L. L. Fatheree, Illinois Public Health director announced yesterday.

More than 4,100 cases of accidental poisoning among children up to age 12 were reported during the first eight months of this year. For the same period last year, cases reported were slightly more than 3,300.

Of the 4,100 cases this year, almost 3,900 occurred in children up to an including age four, with the highest percentage among the two-year olds.

A new state law, administered by the public health department, demands that all hazardous substances intended for household use be plainly labeled to show the hazard.

To save children's lives, a state-wide poison control program was instigated by the department. Centers for the emergency treatment of accidental poisoning were set up in hospitals on a 24-hour service basis. This program has grown from 2 centers in 1956 to 62 centers throughout the state today.

Each center maintains up-to-date reference materials on ingredients incorporated in commercial products and recommends treatment methods. The goal is to have a center within every 25-30 mile radius.

"The centers provide skilled emergency treatment that saves many lives each year," Dr. Fatheree said. However, he added that lowering the grim toll of children needlessly poisoned must be done by parents.

Drama Group To Stage "The Rainmaker"

"The Rainmaker" a romantic comedy in three acts will be presented by the Homewood Players at the Homewood village auditorium, this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 4, 5 and 6.

Mrs. Jeanne Keegan, Hazel Crest, will be starred in the role of Lizzie Curry, a rancher's lonely daughter resigned to spinsterhood until a con-man, calling himself a rainmaker, teaches her to believe in herself. This will be her third year with the group. She has also done radio work with station WBBM and appeared in summer stock productions in Barnstable, Mass.

The setting for The Rainmaker is in a ranch house in the southwest in the time of a terrible drought. The livestock are dying and the temperature gets down to 104 at night. Lizzie's father and two brothers, are worried not only about the lack of rain, but also Lizzie's lack of suitors. They try to entice a shy deputy to come courting with embarrassing results.

Along comes the rainmaker who promises to bring them a storm for one hundred dollars. He tells them "Once in your life, you've got to take a chance on a con-man."

The miracle that he does accomplish is not a storm, but making a warm and attractive woman out of a drab, discouraged spinster.

Curtain time for the show is 8:30 p.m., Nov. 4 and 5 and 7:30 p.m., Nov. 6. Tickets will be available at the door.

Will Co. Farm Bureau Selects IAA Delegates

Farm Bureau president, Herman Lindholm, Naperville, will head the Will county delegation to the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural Association and affiliated companies opening in Chicago, Nov. 14.

Delegates recently appointed by the county farm bureau board to represent Will county are: Lloyd Eichelberger, Lemont; Arnold Brands, Beecher; Earl Keniston, Manhattan; Leonard W. Arnold, Jr., Monee; Morelle See, Plainfield; William Goodwin, Wilmington; and Howard C. Klett, Joliet and of course President Lindholm.

Other members of the board of directors of Farm Bureau--women's committee; young people's committee and various staff and affiliated company representatives are also expected to attend, according to Gene Malone, secretary of organization.

"The exact number of Will county people who plan to attend is now known" Malone said. Many of the delegates often take their wives and since Will county is close to Chicago, some members find it possible to attend part of the convention without staying over night. Among the highlights of the convention will be the address of the IAA president, William J. Kuhfuss at the general session Wednesday morning, Nov.

Adoption of policy resolutions to guide officers and directors of IAA during the year is the key responsibility of the 500 plus delegates who will assemble for the convention.

This is the man who may have saved your life

... or the life of someone dear to you!

CHARLES F. CARPENTIER

SECRETARY OF STATE

In 1953, your Secretary of State, Charles F. Carpentier, successfully fought for the passage of a New Illinois Drivers' License Law... hailed by traffic experts as one of the best in the nation.

Since that time Secretary Carpentier has been foremost in the fight for highway safety. Evidence of his aggressive leadership and intelligent administration is shown by the fact that he has revoked, suspended or cancelled the driving privileges of more than 140,000 drunken, reckless or negligent drivers!

One of them might have killed you... or someone dear to you!

During the time that Charles F. Carpentier has been in office, almost 1,000,000 more vehicles and drivers have crowded onto Illinois highways—yet the death rate on our highways has been decreased each year. If the ratio of deaths in 1952 had continued during the past seven years it has been estimated that more than 3,400 additional persons would have been killed.

Because of Charles F. Carpentier, your Secretary of State, and his strict, honest, forceful administration of the Drivers License Law, this did not happen.

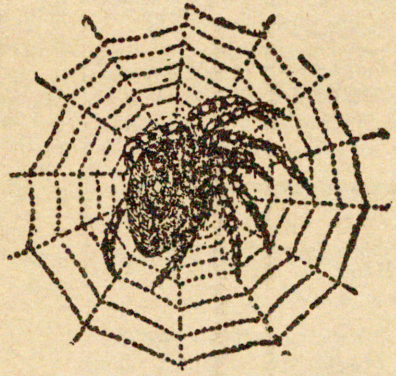

When you vote for Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier you will vote to save lives... and the life you save may be your own!

Remember, keep highway-safety FIRST... re-elect Charles F. Carpentier!

Keep Highway-Safety FIRST

SPIDERS

When Mark Twain was editing a newspaper in Mississippi, he received a letter from a reader who complained that he had found a spider in his paper. He wanted to know what it meant.

Twain replied . . .
"Dear subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good luck nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking to see what merchant did not advertise, so he could go to the store, spin his web over the door and live a life of undisturbed peace."
